

2010 PARTICIPATION FORM

(Saturdays; Jun. 26 – Color Season; 2-5:30pm; Downtown Good Hart)

1. Good Hart Market Days is a venue for the sale of Michigan grown produce, Michigan created art, and Michigan produced food products. Good Hart Market Days is not a flea market/garage sale and vendors should only bring non-food items considered original art or of artistic creation.
2. Vendors are responsible for bringing all set-up equipment including, but not limited to tables, displays, chairs, etc. Vendor table displays should be in an attractive and appealing style.
3. Electricity is not provided. Should you require electricity, please contact us in advance.
4. Vendors are responsible for their own financial transactions including the availability of all cash change.
5. Good Hart Market Days is held rain or shine. In case of inclement weather, the Good Hart General Store may not participate in grilling or other activities, however vendors are still welcome to attend.
6. Vendors selling processed food products are required to display their current, valid Department of Agriculture license.
7. Vendors may not sell items causing direct competition for the Good Hart General Store including, but not limited to, baked goods, canned preserves, or pot pies. Please contact us should you be concerned that your item(s) will cause direct competition. Vendors attempting to sell competitive items may be asked to remove the items from their market space and/or cease participation.
8. Vendors must keep his/her market space free from debris during the market. In addition, vendors are expected to remove all debris and garbage from their selling area at the conclusion of the event.
9. Vendors may not promote additional businesses or events at their selling area without prior approval from the Good Hart General Store.
10. Commit in advance to over 50% of the 2010 dates and have your business and web link promoted on the Good Hart General Store website!

By signing this agreement, I am promising to abide by the rules and guidelines detailed within. I am participating at my own risk and understand my responsibilities as a vendor.
